

All jobs → Certified Food Service Worker for Long Term Care

Certified Food Service Worker for Long Term Care

Toronto, Ontario, Canada · Dietary

Description

The Dietary Aide, under the direction of the Food Service Manager and Cook, facilitates the timely and accurate production of meals that meet general and individual dietary requirements for seniors. This individual will follow requirements provided by dietary services management and dietitians. The dietary aide must adhere to all policies and regulations for safety, hygiene, and facility food preparation guidelines. This position is a casual position, with the opportunity to pick up shifts with written availability.

Requirements

Requirements:

1. Completion of the Food Service Worker Program Approved by the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care.
2. Completion of the Food Handlers Certificate.
3. Knowledge of the MOHLTC standards and the ability to ensure compliance with these standards.
4. Knowledge of Occupational Health and Safety Act, WHMIS.
5. Ability and willingness to provide a service that enhances dignity and respects the diversity of our staff and residents.
6. Working experience in the healthcare industry preferred.
7. Ability to understand Slovenian is an asset.

Starting Rate: $18.18

Please contact Josie by e-mail fss@domlipa.ca